Special Music

Although an architect by profession, Richard de Campo started playing the piano at age 7, and hopes to still be playing the piano after he's retired from architecture. He first studied at the Dalcroze School of Music in NYC, then at the preparatory division of the Manhattan School of Music, and has continued studying with various teachers ever since. While in architecture school at the University of Pennsylvania, he built a small clavichord and helped in the never-ending repair of the Curtis organ there. Richard met his wife, Sue, through the Classical Music Lover's Exchange. When he's not too busy with work and family activities, he manages to squeeze in a little time for practicing the piano.

Today's Scripture Reading

Acts 17:22-31

²² Then Paul stood in front of the Areopagus and said, "Athenians, I see how extremely religious you are in every way. ²³For as I went through the city and looked carefully at the objects of your worship, I found among them an altar with the inscription, 'To an unknown god.' What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you. ²⁴The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands, ²⁵nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mortals life and breath and all things. ²⁶From one ancestor he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live, ²⁷so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him—though indeed he is not far from each one of us. ²⁸For 'In him we live and move and have our being'; as even some of your own poets have said, 'For we too are his offspring.' ²⁹Since we are God's offspring, we ought not to think that the deity is like gold, or silver, or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of mortals. ³⁰While God has overlooked the times of human ignorance, now he commands all people everywhere to repent, ³¹because he has fixed a day on which he will have the world judged in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead."

LET'S JOIN VOICES FOR PENTECOST!

Pentecost is a great opportunity to join our voices in some hand-clapping, voice-raising, heart-throbbing gospel singing!

Here's the rehearsal schedule:

- Wednesday, May 24, 7 PM
- Sunday, May 28, 10:30 AM
- Wednesday, May 31, 7 PM
- Performance - Pentecost Sunday, June 4th, 9 AM

Please pass the word and let's get a large and fun-loving group to make some noise!!

NEW TOM'S DOOR CARDS AVAILABLE

Beautiful new spring and summer cards are available for purchase in the Chapel entry. One hundred percent of proceeds from the sale of these cards goes to help those in need in the Roaring Fork Valley. Tom's Door is an emergency assistance program started by local church congregants over 15 years ago, and the cards are their primary source of funding. Check them out!

NEW ARTWORK IN CREEKSIDE ROOM!

Art by local artist Doug Graybeal is on display in Creekside Room. Thank you to Mike Otte for your hard work as our Chapel curator and keeping our walls filled with beautiful art. A portion of any sale proceeds benefit the Chapel.

Welcome, Announcements, and Peace

Call to Worship

Because of the living Lord Jesus, we can confidently say:

We are never alone, for the Counsellor, the Spirit of truth, is with us forever.

Bidden or unbidden, God is always present.

As the sea is to the fish, as the air is to the bird, so is God to all who live by faith, hope and love...

Blessed is our God, who has never rejected our prayer, nor ever removed from us the love that endures forever.

Bidden or unbidden, God is present

Hymn of Praise

#82, Praise the Lord! Ye Heavens, Adore Him

Children's Message

Opening Prayer

God, You have prepared for those who love You good things which no eye can see, and which surpass our understanding; pour into our hearts such longing for You, that we, loving You in all things and above all things, may obtain Your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ who is alive with You, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Presentation of the Gifts

Doxology #815, Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow

Blessing of the Bread & Wine

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Communion

We receive the Lord's Supper by intinction. A communion server will hand you a piece of bread, representing the body of Christ, which you dip in the cup, representing the blood of Christ. All are welcome at the Lord's Table.

*Gluten-Free wafers available upon request

All of our communion wine is non-alcoholic

Closing Prayer

Loving God, You sent Your Son into the world not to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved: Let the wind of Your Spirit blow freely throughout creation so that all people may be born anew from above and live in the wonder of Your steadfast and abounding grace, as we pray: Our help comes from God, the maker of heaven and earth. Amen.

Closing Hymn

#399, We are God's People

Blessing & Postlude

Rhapsody Op. 79 #2
Johannes Brahms
