Non-Denominational Worship Service Sundays at 9am

Snowmass Chapel

Welcome to Snowmass Chapel!

We are so glad you're here. No matter who you are or where you are on your journey of faith, you are welcome here. Our focus at Snowmass Chapel is on the love of God made visible through Jesus Christ. We hope you will palpably feel the spirit moving in and through you as we worship together today.

CARING MINISTRIES AT SNOWMASS CHAPEL

Caring for those in need is a top priority at the Chapel. Jesus said repeatedly, "Feed my sheep!" and we hope to do that as much as possible. If you or someone you know is hurting, the following resources are available to everyone.

Stephen Ministers – Over the course of the past two years, Snowmass Chapel has trained twenty-two Stephen Ministers. These are lay people with big hearts and skilled in caregiving. They offer weekly visits as long as needed while you pass through a difficult time. You needn't suffer alone!! Call or e-mail Sue de Campo, our Care Coordinator, if you are interested in having or being a Stephen Minister. (970) 300-1223 or sue@snowmasschapel.org.

Parenting Support Group – This group is for women whose children have been placed outside of the home for therapeutic intervention. The women meet monthly to share dinner, friendship and support. Contact Sue de Campo at sue@snowmasschapel.org for more information.

Pastoral Care – Both Senior Pastor Robert de Wetter and Assistant Pastor Charla Belinski are available for individual consultation. They will meet with you and help you find the resources you need to cope with what you are facing and feeling. Contact Charla at (970) 300-1213 or charla@snowmasschapel.org for more information.

Guest Musician

Mack Bailey is a Board Certified Music Therapist in the Roaring Fork Valley. He has toured and performed extensively as a soloist with the Fabulous Limelites, John Denver Tribute with John's band members, the Hard Travelers, and his wife, Rachel Levy. Mack enjoys working with people one-on-one and helping make a difference in people's lives locally, as this is home.

DID YOU KNOW?

Liturgy has to do with how people worship through ritual, customs and traditions. The word liturgy literally means "the work of the people." Part of our tradition at the Chapel is the weekly celebration of communion in which we remember the cross and resurrection of Jesus as well as his last night with his closest followers. For a long time, churches have used bread made by the people of the worshipping community. The bread and wine is then brought forward during the service to represent that the wine and bread are gifts from the people. It also represents that people are making a gift of themselves to Christ. Recently we have decided to implement this practice at our worship services as it is a powerful reminder that we are all part of the body of Christ and that we give ourselves not only to Christ, but to each others in a spirit of love and service.

High School: This group meets whenever busy schedules allow. Sometimes it's a cup of hot cocoa after skiing, lunch in the school cafeteria, or pizza night at Coulter's.

Camp SMashBox: It's never too soon to begin thinking about summer plans! Whether you are a camper or a counselor, contact kara@campsmashbox.com to get in the know! Visit our website for camp weeks 2017.

WOMEN'S GROUP

These intrepid souls are up for adventure. Weekly gatherings include hiking, skiing, book groups, relationship workshops and sitting by a warm fire in the fellowship of friends. To join our email list and learn when the next adventure is, contact charla@snowmasschapel.org.

MEN'S GROUP

Coffee isn't the only thing we need in the morning. Sometimes we need encouragement from others facing the same set of hurdles we face. Men's Group is a chance for men to come together and share the challenges and joys of life and encourage each other to "stand firm in the faith" (1 Cor. 16:13). Join us every 1st and 3rd Tuesday morning at 6:30 am. For more information, contact coulter@snowmasschapel.org.

out of the mud and the mire.
He set my feet on solid ground

Blessing of the Bread & Wine

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Communion Loon Morning, Mack Bailey

We receive the Lord's Supper by intinction. A communion server will hand you a piece of bread, representing the body of Christ, which you dip in the cup, representing the blood of Christ. All are welcome at the Lord's Table.

*Gluten-Free wafers available upon request

All of our communion wine is non-alcoholic

Closing Prayer

All I am, and all I have, I offer, Lord, to you.

I offer you these hands, that you might use them in and through my daily work.

I offer you these feet, that you might lead them to someone who needs my help.

I offer you these shoulders if you should need them to help lighten another's load.

I offer you this voice that you might use it to speak up for those in need.

All I am, and all I have, I offer, Lord, to you. Amen.

Closing Hymn #530, I Will Call Upon the Lord
