Non-Denominational Worship Service Sundays at 9am

5 things you need to know about Snowmass Chapel

We strive to make worship compelling, diverse, relevant, life-changing and focused on God.

*Love God.
Love People.*

That's what we do.

No matter who you are, or where you are in your journey of faith, all people are welcome at Snowmass Chapel.

We love your kids. Kids from preK thru 5th grade are invited to Sunday School in the building next door. Parents can sign children in prior to the service. Creekside Room is available for babies & tots who need a quiet space. All kids are welcome in church any time!!

Visiting or New to the Chapel? Please fill out the form below, tear it off and drop it in the offertory basket so we can be in touch!

Today's Scripture Reading

Philippians 2:1-11 (NLT)

Is there any encouragement from belonging to Christ? Any comfort from his love? Any fellowship together in the Spirit? Are your hearts tender and compassionate? ² Then make me truly happy by agreeing wholeheartedly with each other, loving one another, and working together with one mind and purpose.

³ Don't be selfish; don't try to impress others. Be humble, thinking of others as better than yourselves. ⁴ Don't look out only for your own interests, but take an interest in others, too.

⁵ You must have the same attitude that Christ Jesus had.

⁶ Though he was God, he did not think of equality with God as something to cling to.

⁷ Instead, he gave up his divine privileges; he took the humble position of a slave and was born as a human being. When he appeared in human form,

⁸ he humbled himself in obedience to God and died a criminal's death on a cross.

⁹ Therefore, God elevated him to the place of highest honor and gave him the name above all other names,

¹⁰ that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth,

¹¹ and every tongue declare that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Special Music

Dr. Brittni Brown is a sought-after violin pedagogue and artist-performer in Aspen, CO. She maintains a full studio, with the focus of transforming students into artists, and is an avid performer of solo and chamber music in the RFV.

Nancy Thomas first came to Aspen in the summer of 1961 as a viola and chamber music student at the Aspen Music Festival. She returned for 45 seasons, performing as violist in the Aspen Festival Orchestra, and from 1993 to 2007 as editor of the Festival's program book. She performs with various local ensembles and is a mentor of the Roaring Fork Music Society.

Lorraine Curry

Erin Gallagher studied viola with Richard Marshall of the Minnesota Orchestra before attending Northwestern University. There she studied viola with Roland Vamos, and spent six months studying with Sven Arne Tepl at the Conservatorium van Amsterdam. After receiving degrees in Viola Performance and English Literature from Northwestern, Erin moved to Aspen for the skiing and stayed for everything else.

Sarah Graf is a professional cellist and teacher living in Carbondale, CO. Since graduating from the Eastman School of Music with Performer's Certificate honors, she has taken part in many music festivals. She maintains a private teaching studio and is a mentor to the cellists of the Roaring Fork Youth Orchestra.

Michael "Micha" Schoepe is the worship leader at Snowmass Chapel and provides special music along with numerous guest musicians at the Chapel. He studied Musical Theatre

Performance in Leipzig, Germany.

Call to Worship

Call to Worship Litany (based on Psalm 133)
written by Joanna Harader

Though we may be inclined to brag, let us come together with humility.

How good a thing it is when all of God's people live together in unity.

Though we may be tempted to use harsh words,
let us come together with gentleness.

How good a thing it is when all of God's people live together in unity.

Though we may want everything to happen quickly,
let us come together with patience.

How good a thing it is when all of God's people live together in unity.

Though the world around often encourages hate,
let us come together in love.

How good a thing it is when all of God's people live together in unity.

In humility, gentleness, patience, love, and unity,

Let us worship the God who has called us together.

Hymn of Praise

#16, All Hail The Power of Jesus' Name

Opening Prayer

"Jesus, we know that none of us are 100% humble, for we are clothed in these mortal, fallible bodies. But we do know that You are completely humble and we look to You as our example. As we clothe ourselves in Your righteousness we can overcome the pride that is ever before us. We recognize that all that is good comes from You. Remind us daily that gratitude is the antidote for feelings of pride. When we acknowledge that everything we have and all that we are is due to Your merciful blessings we are humbled and grateful to You, the Giver of every good and perfect gift. Thank you, Amen.

Doxology

Blessing of the Bread & Wine

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Communion

We receive the Lord's Supper by intinction. A communion server will hand you a piece of bread, representing the body of Christ, which you dip in the cup, representing the blood of Christ. All are welcome at the Lord's Table.

*Gluten-Free wafers available upon request

All of our communion wine is non-alcoholic

Closing Prayer

Prayer of William Barclay

Dear Lord, give us the humility which realizes its ignorance, admits its mistakes, recognizes its need, welcomes advice, accepts rebuke. Help us always to praise rather than to criticize, to sympathize rather than to discourage, to build rather than to destroy, and to think of people at their best rather than at their worst. Amen.
