A Father's Day Prayer

Holy God, whom we call Father, we give you thanks for the people who have been our earthly fathers in this life, and we pray for all sorts and conditions of fathers.

For fathers who have striven to balance the demands of work, marriage, and children with an honest awareness of both joy and sacrifice.

For fathers who, lacking a good model, have worked to become a good father.

For fathers who by their own account were not always there for their children, but who continue to offer those children, now grown, their love and support.

For fathers who have been wounded by the neglect and hostility of their children.

For fathers who, despite divorce, have remained in their children's lives.

For fathers whose children are adopted, and whose love and support has offered healing.

For fathers who, as stepfathers, freely choose the obligation of fatherhood and earned their stepchildren's love and respect.

For fathers who have lost a child to death, and continue to hold the child in their heart.

For those men who have no children, but cherish the next generation as if they were their own.

For those men who have "fathered" us in their role as mentors and guides.

For those men who are about to become fathers; may they openly delight in their children.

And for those fathers who have died, but live on in our memory and in the communion of your Saints, whose love continues to nurture us.

All this we ask in the name of your beloved Son, who is both father and mother to us all.
Amen.

Scripture

2 Corinthians 5:6-17 (NIV)

⁶ Therefore we are always confident and know that as long as we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord. ⁷ For we live by faith, not by sight. ⁸ We are confident, I say, and would prefer to be away from the body and at home with the Lord. ⁹ So we make it our goal to please him, whether we are at home in the body or away from it. ¹⁰ For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each of us may receive what is due us for the things done while in the body, whether good or bad. ¹¹ Since, then, we know what it is to fear the Lord, we try to persuade others. What we are is plain to God, and I hope it is also plain to your conscience. ¹² We are not trying to commend ourselves to you again, but are giving you an opportunity to take pride in us, so that you can answer those who take pride in what is seen rather than in what is in the heart. ¹³ If we are "out of our mind," as some say, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. ¹⁴ For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died. ¹⁵ And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again.

¹⁶ So from now on we regard no one from a worldly point of view. Though we once regarded Christ in this way, we do so no longer. ¹⁷ Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!

Call to Worship

Have you looked for crocus shoots or buds on trees?

Look around and see the newness!

Did you hear this week about love in action?

Look around and see the newness!

Did someone who was lost find her way home?

Look around and see the newness!

In Jesus Christ, God is busy making all things new!

Be glad in God and rejoice! Amen.

Hymn of Praise

#549, Higher Ground

Opening Prayer

Holy God, loving Presence, Gentle Spirit, hear us as we pray.

We pray not to change you but to change ourselves and align our will more completely with yours.

The world is filled with so much hurt,
we look with disdain on those who are different from us
and judge them out of our fear.

Jesus taught us that perfect love casts out fear and so we reach for that love that we might know it and share it and in small ways transform hurt to healing.

Keep us mindful of what it means to be your hands and feet and voice and heart in the world and bind us with your grace as we seek to live your way and will each day. Amen.

Blessing of the Bread & Wine

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Communion

We receive the Lord's Supper by intinction. A communion server will hand you a piece of bread, representing the body of Christ, which you dip in the cup, representing the blood of Christ. All are welcome at the Lord's Table.

*Gluten-Free wafers available upon request

All of our communion wine is non-alcoholic

Closing Prayer

Life is a mystery. We walk by faith.

God calls us when we least expect it,
inviting us to be in Christ.

Walk out into the world, knowing that you are part of God's life-giving new creation.

Life is a mystery. We walk by faith. Amen.
