Inter-Denominational Worship Service Sundays at 9am

Snowmass Chapel

Welcome to Snowmass Chapel

We are an inter-denominational church serving the Roaring Fork Valley. We strive to make worship compelling, diverse, relevant, life-changing and focused on God.

No matter who you are, or where you are in your journey of faith, all people are welcome at Snowmass Chapel.

Visiting or New to the Chapel? Be sure to visit our Welcome Wagon! Please fill out the form below, tear it off and drop it in the offertory basket so we can be in touch.

We love your kids. Kids - 6mo thru 6th grade are invited to our children's program in the building next door. Parents can sign children in prior to the service. Creekside Room is also available for parents and little ones. All kids are welcome in church any time!

Love God. Love People. That's what we do.

Thank you for visiting!

We would love to connect with you. Please fill out the form and drop it in the offertory basket.

Today's Scripture Reading

John 6:1-21 NRSV

After this Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias. ² A large crowd kept following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing for the sick. ³ Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with his disciples. ⁴ Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near. ⁵ When he looked up and saw a large crowd coming toward him, Jesus said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?" ⁶ He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do. ⁷ Philip answered him, "Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little." ⁸ One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, ⁹ "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?" ¹⁰ Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all. ¹¹ Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. ¹² When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, "Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost." ¹³ So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets. ¹⁴ When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, "This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world."

¹⁵ When Jesus realized that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain by himself. ¹⁶ When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea, ¹⁷ got into a boat, and started across the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. ¹⁸ The sea became rough because a strong wind was blowing. ¹⁹ When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat, and they were terrified. ²⁰ But he said to them, "It is I; do not be afraid." ²¹ Then they wanted to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land toward which they were going.

Today's Special Music

Iranian flutist, Mehrdad Gholami has served as principal flute with Tehran Symphony and has performed in different genres and with different chamber groups in Tehran. He is also the prize winner of several solo and chamber music competitions in Iran as well as Iran's National Councours of Arts at the age 18. Currently, he is finishing his Doctoral degree in Flute Performance at TCU in Fort Worth, Texas. From an early age, Mehrdad has played with numerous contemporary music ensembles and has worked with Iranian and American composers to premiere and record new sounds for flute with different ensembles. He was the first Iranian flutist to record a compilation of Iranian pieces for flute and various ensembles, published by the University of Tehran. Mehrdad will join Aspen Contemporary Ensemble to spend his second year of residency with Aspen Contemporary Ensemble as a recipient of Susan and Ford Schumann fellowship for contemporary music. Welcome, Announcements, and Peace

Call to Worship

written by Thom Shuman

With friends and strangers, with family and neighbors, we gather:

Come among us, Healing God, with that love which never ends.

With faith reaching out to touch, with hearts straining to trust, we hope:

Come among us, Friend of the broken, with Your compassion which makes us whole.

With word and wonder, with silence and song, we wait:

Come among us, Dryer of our tears, to lift us to our feet to follow You. Amen!

Hymn of Praise

#293, Praise the One Who Breaks the Darkness

Opening Prayer

written by Katherine Hawker

We come believing in our emptiness,

believing that we will never have enough, believing that what we have is unworthy.

We come fearful of sharing,

fearful of losing our tenuous grip on security,

fearful of touching and knowing the pain of others.

We come overwhelmed by the hunger,

overwhelmed by the suffering of children near and far,

overwhelmed by the endless tales of senseless violence, greed, and death.

We come aching from the weight of the responsibility,

aching from the chilling challenge of knowing our abundance, aching from the gnawing awareness that we have much to share.

We come clinging to our meager lunches;

bless them, and us.

break them, and us.

share them, and us. Amen.

Hymn

#737, Like a River Glorious

Doxology

Blessing of the Bread & Wine

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Communion

We receive the Lord's Supper by intinction. A communion server will hand you a piece of bread, representing the body of Christ, which you dip in the cup, representing the blood of Christ. All are welcome at the Lord's Table.

*Gluten-Free wafers available upon request

All of our communion wine is non-alcoholic

Closing Prayer

posted by Rex A. E. Hunt

On my own what I have to give doesn't amount to much in the light of all You have given to me and in the face of so much need. Put together as a congregation, what we offer You here in love becomes more, not simply added together, but somehow multiplied in its usefulness.

We ask You to bless our gifts and with the addition of your blessing, just as it was with the loaves and fishes, there is enough for all. Amen!

Closing Hymn

WS #226, Still My Soul Be Soul

Postlude
