Today’s Scripture Readings
Amos 8:1-12
1 This is what the Lord God showed me—a basket of summer fruit. 2 He said, “Amos, what do you see?” And I said, “A basket of summer fruit.” 3 Then the Lord said to me, “The end has come upon my people Israel; I will never again pass them by. 4 The songs of the temple shall become wailings in that day,” says the Lord God; “the dead bodies shall be many, cast out in every place. Be silent!”

4 Hear this, you that trample on the needy, and bring to ruin the poor of the land, 5 saying, “When will the new moon be over so that we may sell grain; and the sabbath, so that we may offer wheat for sale? We will make the ephah small and the shekel great, and practice deceit with false balances, 6 buying the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals, and selling the sweepings of the wheat.” 7 The Lord has sworn by the pride of Jacob: Surely I will never forget any of their deeds. 8 Shall not the land tremble on this account, and everyone mourn who lives in it, and all of it rise like the Nile, and be tossed about and sink again, like the Nile of Egypt? 9 On that day, says the Lord God, I will make the sun go down at noon, and darken the earth in broad daylight. 10 I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; I will bring sackcloth on all loins, and baldness on every head; I will make it like the mourning for an only son, and the end of it like a bitter day.

11 The time is surely coming, says the Lord God, when I will send a famine on the land; not a famine of bread, or a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord. 12 They shall wander from sea to sea, and from north to east; they shall run to and fro, seeking the word of the Lord, but they shall not find it.”

Luke 10:38-42
Now as they went on their way, he entered a certain village, where a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home. 38 She had a sister named Mary, who sat at the Lord’s feet and listened to what he was saying. 39 But Martha was distracted by her many tasks; so she came to him and asked, “Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her then to help me.” 40 But the Lord answered her, “Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things; 41 there is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her.”

Today’s Special Music

Japanese pianist Madoka Asari is a highly sought after collaborator who has performed in the U.S.A., Japan, France, and the Czech Republic. Madoka has played with some of today’s most prominent artists including Geraldine Walther (Takács Quartet), Clive Greensmith (Montrose Trio/Tokyo Quartet), Michelle Kim (New York Philharmonic), and Caleb Hudson (Canadian Brass). Her active performing career has taken her to venues such as Carnegie’s Weill Recital Hall, Hahn Hall (Santa Barbara, CA), Boettcher Concert Hall (Denver, CO) and Sapporo Concert Hall Kitara.

Madoka has served on the faculty of the Collaborative Piano department at Colorado State University, as an interim staff pianist at University of Colorado at Boulder, and as an Associate Instructor of Music Theory at Indiana University Bloomington. In 2018, Madoka began working as a pianist for Colorado Children’s Chorale. She holds a Master of Music degree from Indiana University and Bachelor of Music degree from the University of Denver. Her teachers and coaches have included Steven Mayer, Evelyne Brancart, Shigeo Neriki, Rita Sloan and Jonathan Feldman.

Ladusa Chang-Ou was born in the city of Montreal and began studying violin at the age of six. She has since then been the winner of many competitions including the Canadian Music Competition’s Grand Prize and the Montreal Symphony Orchestra Standard Life competition.

At the age of ten, Ladusa debuted as guest soloist with the Longueuil Symphony Orchestra and I Musici de Montréal Chamber Orchestra.

Ladusa has worked with many renowned violinists such as Masuko Uchida, Michael Frischenschlager, Stefan Milenkovich, and is now completing her Bachelor of Music in Violin Performance with Axel Strauss at McGill University.

In the course of completing her Bachelor degree at McGill University, she has worked as concertmaster of McGill Symphony Orchestra and Pronto Musica Orchestra for two consecutive years.

Elie Boissinot is the recipient of several awards, most recently winning the 2018 Golden Violin Prize, the Developing Artist Grant from the Hnatyshyn Foundation as well as the Lloyd Carr-Harris String Scholarship at McGill University, where he is pursuing a Bachelor of Music degree with Elizabeth Dolin. He won several concerto competitions and received first prizes from, among others, the Canadian Music Competition and the Festival de Musique Classique de Montréal.

In recent years, Elie performed as a soloist with the OPMEM, the OSJM and the FACE Symphony Orchestra. He has held first chairs in Pronto Musica, the McGill Symphony Orchestra, the OSJM, and the OSCM. As winner of the 2018 McGill Concerto Competition, he performed the Elgar’s concerto with the MGSO in February 2019. He will also perform solo recitals on Montreal and Toronto. Elie plays on an instrument and bow generously loaned by Canimex Inc. of Drummondville, QC.

Welcome, Announcements, and Peace

Call to Worship
When the world divides us,
Come, Holy Spirit, make us one.
When the world calls us orphaned,
Come, Holy Spirit, make us a family.
When the world leads us astray,
Come, Holy Spirit, call us home.

Hymn of Praise
WS #225, Speak O Lord

Opening Prayer
God, make us open to hear your voice. May we be eager to hear what you have to say to us through your written Word, and by the Word as it is exists in the family of Christ. When the voices of this world are louder than your still small voice, help us to discern that the loudest voice is not always the wisest voice. Help us to hear you calling us by name to be yours both now and forever. In Jesus’ name, Amen.

Blessing of the Bread & Wine

The Lord's Prayer
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Communion
We receive the Lord's Supper by intinction. A communion server will hand you a piece of bread, representing the body of Christ, which you dip in the cup, representing the blood of Christ. All are welcome at the Lord's Table.

*Gluten-Free wafers available upon request  All of our communion wine is non-alcoholic

Closing Prayer
God of grace, we confess that often so many voices clamor for our attention that your voice is hard to hear. Yet even if at first we do not hear the divine word addressed to us, when our own words and actions separate us from you, you call us again and again. Merciful God, take from us all that hinders our hearing, and fill us anew with the Holy Spirit that we may joyfully respond to your call on our lives. In Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.

Closing Hymn
WS #114, How Long
