

Snowmass Chapel
something kinda different

October 4th

Ask: How did you use your power for good this week?
Did you see others being humble this week? What did that look like?
Pray: Thank God for empowering each of us to live with humility.

Read: Matthew 21:33-46

"Listen to another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a watchtower. Then he leased it to tenants and went to another country. When the harvest time had come, he sent his slaves to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his slaves and beat one, killed another, and stoned another. Again he sent other slaves, more than the first; and they treated them in the same way. Finally he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him and get his inheritance.' So they seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?" They said to him, "He will put those wretches to a miserable death, and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the harvest time." Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the scriptures: 'The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; this was the Lord's doing, and it is amazing in our eyes'? Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that produces the fruits of the kingdom. The one who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; and it will crush anyone on whom it falls." When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they realized that he was speaking about them. They wanted to arrest him, but they feared the crowds, because they regarded him as a prophet.

Explain: In this parable, Jesus is speaking symbolically about stories of prophets who God sent in the past. The landowner represents God. The slaves who the landowner sends represent prophets who came before Jesus. The landowner's son represents Jesus.

Ask: What does it mean to be a "tenant"? What were the tenants' responsibilities?
Why do you think the tenants acted the way they did? How are we like the tenants?

Ask: When you think about the landowner's son, how do you feel?
If Jesus was around today, how do you think he would be treated? Do you think you would recognize him?

Pray: Ask God to show us what parts of our lives we need to change.
Pray to be different from the tenants, and to welcome everyone God sends our way.
