

Snowmass Chapel
something kinda different

September 27th

Ask: How did you welcome people to the kingdom of heaven this week?

Pray: Thank God for helping us invite others into the kingdom of heaven, and for inviting us all to belong there.

Read: Philippians 2:1-8

If then there is any encouragement in Christ, any consolation from love, any sharing in the Spirit, any compassion and sympathy, make my joy complete: be of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility regard others as better than yourselves. Let each of you look not to your own interests, but to the interests of others. Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death-- even death on a cross.

Ask: What does it mean to be humble?

How can we look "to the interests of others" in all that we do?

Can you think of a time someone has valued your interests over their own?

How did that make you feel?

Ask: When you think about the way that Jesus used his power, what comes into your mind?

Why is it important that Jesus did not exploit his "equality with God"?

How can we "empty" ourselves like Jesus did?

How can we use our power to love and serve humbly?

Pray: Ask God to help us use our power for good, and to be humble as we love and serve others.
