Welcome, Announcements, and Peace

Call to Worship

What, then, shall we say about these things?

If God is for us, who is against us?

What, then, shall we say about these things?

God offers us new life, a fresh start, a second chance.

What, then, shall we say about these things?

That God, who is holy, desires wholeness and joy for all people.

So then, let us say that, and let us worship our God.

Amen.

Hymn of Praise

All Who Are Thirsty

All who are thirsty
All who are weak
Come to the fountain
Dip your heart in the stream of life
Let the pain and the sorrow
Be washed away
In the waves of His mercy
As deep cries out to deep
(We sing)

Come Lord Jesus come
Come Lord Jesus come
Come Lord Jesus come
Come Lord Jesus come

All who are thirsty
All who are weak
Come to the fountain
Dip your heart in the stream of life
Let the pain and the sorrow
Be washed away
In the waves of His mercy
As deep cries out to deep
(We sing)

Holy Spirit come
Holy Spirit come
Holy Spirit come

Holy Spirit come

As deep cries out to deep
As deep cries out to deep
As deep cries out to deep we sing

Come Lord Jesus come
Come Lord Jesus come
Come Lord Jesus come
Come Lord Jesus come
Come Lord Jesus come

Opening Prayer

Jesus, lover of our whole being,

We bring you all that we have today:

Our hope for a better tomorrow.

Our trembling commitment to walk the future with you. Our veiled understanding that, if we want to find you we should look into the dark and smelly places of this world and not from the comfort of our cozy living rooms. But we also bring to you our tragedies, our shortcomings, our guilt, our frustration, our desperation; our hopelessness in our own capability to change anything in our heart, our world and our future. Lord, we bring you our blindness that we may yet see.

Have mercy on us, Lord.

Have mercy.

Amen.

Mark 10:46-52

NLT

⁴⁶ Then they reached Jericho, and as Jesus and his disciples left town, a large crowd followed him. A blind beggar named Bartimaeus (son of Timaeus) was sitting beside the road. ⁴⁷ When Bartimaeus heard that Jesus of Nazareth was nearby, he began to shout, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

⁴⁸ “Be quiet!” many of the people yelled at him.

But he only shouted louder, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

⁴⁹ When Jesus heard him, he stopped and said, “Tell him to come here.”

So they called the blind man. “Cheer up,” they said. “Come on, he’s calling you!” ⁵⁰ Bartimaeus threw aside his coat, jumped up, and came to Jesus.

⁵¹ “What do you want me to do for you?” Jesus asked.

“My Rabbi,” the blind man said, “I want to see!”

⁵² And Jesus said to him, “Go, for your faith has healed you.” Instantly the man could see, and he followed Jesus down the road.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Communion

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Communion Hymn

Just As I Am

Just as I am without one plea
But that Thy Blood was shed for me
And that Thou bidd'st me come to Thee
O Lamb of God I come I come

Just as I am Thou wilt receive

Wilt welcome pardon cleanse relieve Because Thy Promise I believe
O Lamb of God I come I come

Just as I am Thy Love unknown
Hath broken ev'ry barrier down
Now to be Thine yes Thine alone

O Lamb of God I come I come

Just as I am poor wretched blind
Sight riches healing of the mind
Yea all I need in Thee to find
O Lamb of God I come I come

Closing Prayer

O Jesus Christ, teacher and healer, you heard the cry of the blind beggar when others would have silenced him.
Teach us to be attentive
to the voices others ignore, that we might respond through the power of the Spirit to heal the afflicted and to welcome the abandoned for your sake and the sake of the gospel.
Amen.
