Prelude

Welcome, Announcements, and Peace

Call to Worship

Gentle and patient
Careful and persistent
God, you are calling.
In grieving and in praise
Through dawn and midday
God, you are calling.
Unexpected and planned
In a still small voice and in power
God, you are calling.
Spontaneous and prepared Willing or protected
God, you are calling.
Our God is eager to share with us,
wherever we are in our journey.
May we be diligent to listen.
God, you are calling. Amen.

Hymn

Eye Has Not Seen

Marty Haugen, Catholic Hymn

Eye has not seen, ear has not heard what God has ready for those who
love him;
Spirit of love, come, give us the mind of Jesus, teach us the wisdom
of God.

1. When pain and sorrow weigh us down, be near to us, O Lord, forgive the weakness of our faith,
and bear us up within your peaceful word.

Eye has not seen, ear has not heard
what God has ready for those who
love him;
Spirit of love, come, give us the mind of Jesus, teach us the wisdom
of God.

2. Our lives are but a single breath,
we flower and we fade,
yet all our days are in your hands,
so we return in love what love has made.

Eye has not seen, ear has not heard
what God has ready for those who
love him;
Spirit of love, come, give us the mind of Jesus, teach us the wisdom
of God.

3. To those who see with eyes of faith, the Lord is ever near, reflected in the faces of all the poor and lowly of the world.

Eye has not seen, ear has not heard
what God has ready for those who
love him;
Spirit of love, come, give us the mind of Jesus, teach us the wisdom
of God.

4. We sing a myst'ry from the past in halls where saints have trod, yet ever new the music rings to Jesus, Living Song of God.

Eye has not seen, ear has not heard
what God has ready for those who
love him;
Spirit of love, come, give us the mind of Jesus, teach us the wisdom
of God.

Opening Prayer

The buzz of the world interrupts our lives and fills our ears
Call us into Your way of life, O God
The complaints of others settle in our mind and cloud our vision
Lead us into Your vision of life, O God
Fill our hearts, fill our eyes, fill our ears with Your love, O God
Let us be Your hands and feet in the world, O God.
Let us worship You together.
Amen.

Isaiah 6:1-8, (9-13)

NRSV

6:1 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple.
6:2 Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew.
6:3 And one called to another and said: “Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.”
6:4 The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke.
6:5 And I said: “Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!”
6:6 Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs.
6:7 The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: “Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.”
6:8 Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?” And I said, “Here am I; send me!”
6:9 And he said, “Go and say to this people: ‘Keep listening, but do not comprehend; keep looking, but do not understand.’
6:10 Make the mind of this people dull, and stop their ears, and shut their eyes, so that they may not look with their eyes, and listen with their ears, and comprehend with their minds, and turn and be healed.”
6:11 Then I said, “How long, O Lord?” And he said: “Until cities lie waste without inhabitant, and houses without people, and the land is utterly desolate;
6:12 until the LORD sends everyone far away, and vast is the emptiness in the midst of the land.
6:13 Even if a tenth part remain in it, it will be burned again, like a terebinth or an oak whose stump remains standing when it is felled.” The holy seed is its stump.

Luke 5:1-11

NRSV

5:1 Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God,
5:2 he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets.
5:3 He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat.
5:4 When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.”
5:5 Simon answered, “Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.”
5:6 When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break.
5:7 So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink.
5:8 But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, “Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!”
5:9 For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken;
5:10 and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who are partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, “Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.”
5:11 When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Communion

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Closing Prayer

Gracious God, open our eyes of faith to see your love in the interruptions in our lives today. Lord, help us see these moments as opportunities to love and to accept Your love and the love of others. Help us share the good news of Your great love with everyone we know. Slow us down, so that we can receive and give to others. In Your strong name Lord Jesus, Amen.
