Hymn

Lord, You Have Come (Pescador De Hombres)
(verses 1, 3, 4)

(Verse 1)

Lord, when you came to the seashore
You weren't seeking the wise or the wealthy,
But only asking that I might follow.

(Chorus)

O Lord, in my eyes you were gazing, Kindly smiling, my name you were
saying;
All I treasured, I have left on the
sand there;
Close to you, I will find other seas.

(Verse 3)

Lord, have you need of my labor,
Hands for service, a heart made for loving,
My arms for lifting the poor and broken?

(Chorus)

O Lord, in my eyes you were gazing, Kindly smiling, my name you were
saying;
All I treasured, I have left on the
sand there;
Close to you, I will find other seas.

(Verse 4)

Lord, send me where you would have me,
To a village, or heart of the city;
I will remember that you are with me.

(Chorus)

O Lord, in my eyes you were gazing, Kindly smiling, my name you were
saying;
All I treasured, I have left on the
sand there;
Close to you, I will find other seas.

Scripture Reading

Jeremiah 31:31-34

NRSV

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the Lord. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, “Know the Lord,” for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

John 12:20-33

NRSV

Now among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, “Sir, we wish to see Jesus.” Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honor.

“Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say—‘Father, save me from this hour’? No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name.” Then a voice came from heaven, “I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again.” The crowd standing there heard it and said that it was thunder. Others said, “An angel has spoken to him.” Jesus answered, “This voice has come for your sake, not for mine. Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself.” He said this to indicate the kind of death he was to die.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.
